New Delhi (13th Jan, 2019):- The SSB Central Executive Committee of Sandiksha visited “The Earth Saviours Foundation”, Old Age Home /Orphanage Home, Bandhwari Village, Gurugram on 13.01.2020 to celebrate New Year and Lohri festival. The celebration was marked by warm conversations with the residents of the old age home, who were delighted to have Sandiksha with them on the joyous day. This was followed by distributing 200 Nos. blankets, cloths and edible items to the residents of old age home as a token of love and best wishes. The famous SSB Band team performed for the gathering which elevated the atmosphere of celebrations and left everyone in festive spirits. Smt. Ameeta Negi, Honorary Secretary Sandiksha gave an introductory address to the gathering wherein she highlighted the role of Sandiksha and several initiatives undertaken by it. Thereafter Mr Ravi Kalra, Founder and President of “The Earth Saviours Foundation” gave a speech to thank SSB for undertaking several benevolent initiatives and he admired the fact the inspite of being an armed Force, which functions in adverse conditions with a strong hand, SSB still thinks for the betterment and happiness of the less privileged. The residents were honoured by offering shawls and momento by the Sandiksha. The whole event was presided by President Sandiksha Smt. Seema Prasad who highly appreciated the human work being undertaken by “The Earth Saviours Foundation”.

The Lohri celebration was attended and celebrated by Smt. Seema Singh, Honorary Joint Secretary, Smt. Monika Jaswal, Honorary Treasurer, Smt. Romi Potsangbam, Honorary Joint Treasurer and other co-opted members of Sandiksha.
